President's Remark

Shaw Spouses' Club Member,

We have kicked off this year with a great start. Our first social of the season was at the pavilion at Memorial park on Shaw, we had a great turn out and some new members joined. Also, Julie Hill delivered cookies to almost 150 airmen who were quarantined here in Sumter before deploying; and did this on short notice. We have some amazing things going on in this club and could not accomplish them without our members. We are still welcoming new members and would love to get more people involved, please be an advocate for the club and recruit your friends or neighbors. We are currently seeking a few members to fill open board positions or if you want to host one of our special activities, please contact myself or Beckie. This club is only possible with our members and we can only support the community by bonding together and volunteering. Looking forward to September and growing our club together.

Julie Hill

Julie made a quick success out of a short notice cookie drive for airmen who were quarantined before their deployments. Over 13 dozen cookies were collected and artistically bagged for our brave service members.

Thank you, Julie, for serving our club and our community!
